(a) whether the Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) is facing acute shortage manpower at different levels;

(b) if so, the details thereof;

(c) whether this shortage is hampering investigation into important cases; and

(d) if so, the steps taken to make up the shortage of CBI?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS (SHRISURESH PACHOURI): (a) and (b) As against the sanctioned strength of 5891, there were 1163 posts lying vacant in the CBI as on 1.8.2005.

(c) and (d) Several steps have been taken to meet the shortages. These include:—

1. Monthly incentive of Rs. 1000 and Rs.700 has been approved for DSP and Inspector of CBI where the maximum shortage was noticed.
2. Ministry of Home Affairs has been requested to direct all its Central Para Military organizations to send more officers on deputation.
3. Union Public Service Commission has been requested to expedite the process of recruitment proposals pending with them.
4. In order to reduce repatriation of existing service officers of depution, the lending organizations have been requested to allow their deputation for the maximum duration as permissible under recruitment rules. Through effective deployment of available resources CBI ensures that manpower deficit does not affect its functioning.
